ANGRIER PATIENT OF PHYSICIAN OF "DIAMOND JIM"

Attracted to the Johns Hopkins Hospital by the fact that his friend, "Diamond Jim" Brady of New York, had been cured of an intestinal trouble similar to that from which he was suffering, A. B. King of Watons is to-day a patient of Dr. H. H. Young at that institution.

Mr. Angier, who is about 40, is president of the Angier Chemical Company of Allston. Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his son, George J. Angier, active manager of the company, 224 Brighton avenue. The younger Angier is at his father's bedside and only his latter's wife left in the Colonial Bazaar for Baltimore.

Red Letter Day, Friday, December 27th

We're Going After a Record Business Tomorrow and We're Going to Get It. That's a big, forceful statement, but it's bound to come true. You'll be here and so will thousands of others who are governed by the spirit of thrift.

WE want Red Letter Day to be the biggest one-day sale in New England. There's only one way to make it biggest, and that is to make the values so remarkable as to eliminate competition for that single day.

HENRY SIEGEL controls four great stores. These four stores form the most potent buying organization in the whole United States. You will readily realize therefore how the savings quoted below are possible only here. From now on Red Letter Day at Siegel's will be the talk of New England.

The One Day Month End Round-Up of Odd Remnants, Discontinued Umbrellas, Broken Sizes, and New Goods Bought at a Sacrifice to Sell at Bargain Prices.

In order to keep our stocks up to the minute in freshness and newness, we hold this general clearance of accumulations in all departments once a month. It is better business to dispose of such small lots quickly at a sacrifice than to pay attention to the profit. The prices, therefore, are extraordinary because the lots must all be sold out in one day—from 8:30 to 5:30 p. m.

YESTERDAY WE PRINTED

"There Are Things To Advertise Tomorrow"

TODAY WE MAKE GOOD THE STATEMENT

We intend to put before the retail buyers of Boston an array of merchandise of many sorts, which for variety, quality and price-cheapness will be more surprising than any of the great offerings ever made by us in the past. We begin the operations by

CLOSING OUT

- All Reminders of Holiday Goods.
- All Goods Soiled from Handling.
- All Goods Crumpled and Rumbled.
- All Exhausted Assortments.
- All Discontinued Styles—

AND EVERYTHING ELSE THAT FOR ONE REASON OR ANOTHER SHOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO LINGER

Nothing shall balk us from getting rid of these goods—price least of all. We have Thursday, Friday and Saturday in which to make a clean sweep of them—and you should let nothing prevent you from coming to the Store and taking advantage of the season's most sensational values.

1/4 — 1/3 AND 1/2 FORMER PRICES

IT'S A GOOD TIME now to come to the Store. All the anxiety of weeks of preparations and the strain of the doubly busiest days of the year are off and over. Everybody has had a holiday and we are all cheerier and readier to begin anew.

IF SOME GOODS WERE injured in the crowd, we will not grumble. They are for sale now that Christmas is over, for what they will fetch, and the prices we have put on them will bring the customers quickly as soon as the news gets around.

THERE'S A LOT OF THINGS dusty and clipped and soiled. There are also things that were hurt in the deliveries and returned by customers. Whatever the sacrifice we cannot keep any but perfect goods for sale. Whoever buys here can depend on that.

THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF LOTS—EVERY STORE BENEATH OUR ROOF CONTRIBUTES

We quote a few items merely to illustrate how absurd and ridiculous the the prices have been marked.

HANDKERCHIEFS

We will not forget your recent marks of appreciation. With the Holiday business we spread out Handkerchiefs until they covered about three times the space usually given them.

There was no excuse for not serving you well. The goods, the place, the people; the prices were right. That you sanctioned our preparations was fully shown by the unparalleled liberality of your purchases. The trade was tempestuous at times and out of it—like flying spray—were tossed up hundreds of Handkerchiefs mused and rumpled and others a little dust-sprinkled by careless handling.

You are to take them now.

Women's Handkerchiefs—All-linen, colored borders, edged with lace and embroidered, regularly 12 1/2c; now..... 3 for 25c

Women's Handkerchiefs—One-corner embroidered, edged with lace, and others with tinted borders, were 25c; now..... 12 1/2c

WOMEN'S KNIT UNDERWEAR
INSIGNIFICANT IRREGULARITIES

Delicate and intricate machinery gets complicated now and then. That's why some of this Underwear has slight blemishes. A jar or a concussion throws a thread askew and the uniformity is marred. The defect in the weave may be no bigger than a pinhead, but it shows in the price as large as a silver quarter or half dollar.

A Bachelor's Diary

In all this struggle for an economic independence the people of New England have no quarrel with Mr Mellen personally. He is carrying out a policy inaugurated in Wall Street under Mr Morgan and he is carrying it out for the profit of Wall Street and Mr Morgan.

But if we turn our eyes from the man to the policy which he carries out, false statements and illegal acts. It is not necessary to blame Mr Mellen personally for all this. He is the hired man in all this business. He could not do otherwise than follow the orders of his employers. But it is his position to do it so much more harm without making promises which he never could keep, without making statements which were false and without doing anything to help the people of New England who are the victims of the people of New England a scheme which was to work out the results that have followed the aggressions of the New Haven's monopolistic policy. The
